This award, the GFWS-WS Club Woman of the Year, is to honor and recognize the State club woman and volunteer who demonstrates the GFWS philosophy of community improvement through volunteer service, "Living the Volunteer Spirit."

Each club may select one member to be honored. A report must be turned in by March 1st of the current year describing the candidate's activities from January 1st through December 31st of the previous year.

Three copies of this report must be submitted since there are three judges involved. You may use non-GFWS members as judges; however, it is acceptable to choose members from within the State club.

The report must include the following:

Cover page:

1. Candidate's name
2. Club
3. District
4. Club President's signature

Narrative containing no more than 2 pages typed should include:

1. Brief description of Federation activities prior to last year
2. Detailed description of current GFWS activities
3. Brief description of State, District, and club
4. Brief description of community activities outside club
5. Brief description of family and professional life

Eligibility: Candidate must be a dues-paying member of GFWS-WS to be considered. Currently elected GFWS-WS Officers and past GFWS-WS Presidents will not be eligible for this award.
